

TRADE DEPRESSION.

Ex-President Harrison's Views on the Subject.

CAUSE OF THE STRINGENCY.

He Thinks That the Sherman Act is Not Alone Responsible for the Prevailing Want of Confidence That This Country Experiences—Views of a Few Western Senators on the Silver Question.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The World prints the following as ex-President Harrison's expression on the business depression:

"The Sherman act is not alone responsible for the prevailing want of confidence that this country now experiences. The distrust is not against silver only. It is not against government issue of money; people are not holding gold throughout the country. Relatively gold is circulated as freely as silver. People are holding gold from the circulation banks, or savings institutions, and are locking it in safe deposit vaults, or hiding it away in old stockings. They do this, not because they have not confidence in government money; but because they are fearful of business calamities. The distrust is increasing, and the outlook is gloomy. The Sherman act is not the sole cause of bad times. That measure has served its purpose, it is true, but it is not responsible for the depression which overhangs commerce, trade and agriculture.

"The present party in power came in on a statement of its principles formulated and promulgated at Chicago, where a gathering which represented a diversity of political beliefs and prejudices gave this statement to the country as the platform of the Democratic party. It was announced to the country that the existing system of tariff should be modified to the extent of a tariff for revenue only. On this basis the candidates of the party now in power were elected. The enormous manufacturing interests were of course duly impressed and became compelled to suit themselves to the condition to which the Chicago platform must logically lead.

"It is impossible to bridge over suddenly the wide chasm intervening between comparative free trade and the protective system under which the nation grew rich without prolonged convulsions in trade. Great economic changes do not adjust themselves with celerity, hence, fearing changes, factories stop, workshops close and prices shrink.

"If the Chicago enunciation of principles is to be maintained business must prepare for a change. According to its principles the government is pledged to reduce the tariff to the standard of the Chicago convention. The business of the country can not prosper under the circumstances. Distrust is widespread, everything languishes.

"The heterogeneous political elements that will meet at Washington in August will prevent free trade and many theories contrary to business stability. The conservative people of the country stand aghast at possibilities of legislation, and are trembling to suit the weather. The outlook is dark, because it is difficult to see how relief is to come. The distress might be dispelled, perhaps, but how? In one sense the situation is theatrical; excitement may be calmed by a stroke of inspiration. A panic is sometimes averted by a band striking up a popular air just as the frightened crowd is about to rush and trample over one another.

"How can the present somewhat analogous condition be changed by suddenly inspired confidence? The leaders of the party in power will scarcely acknowledge that its principles are mistaken ones, that the Chicago platform was false and should be repudiated. I can see no Moses at present who will lead the business world out of its Egyptian darkness."

General Harrison sympathizes personally with President Cleveland who is carrying, he thinks, about as heavy a burden as mortal man can bear up under.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S POLICY.

What the Administration Will Recommend to Congress.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The World prints the following:

The World is enabled to announce authoritatively the immediate policy of President Cleveland and his administration in regard to the approaching special session of congress. Briefly it will be as follows:

First—Silver reform by the absolute and unqualified repeal of the Sherman law.

Second—Tariff reform to be prosecuted in accordance with the pledges of the party as soon as, but not before, the finances of the country are again upon a stable basis.

Mr. Cleveland is annoyed and exasperated at the unexpected interference with his tariff reform plans, but he is not discouraged.

President Cleveland's advice to the coming special session of congress will be for the repeal at once of the Sherman silver law. He believes that any complication of this issue with amendments, substitutes or similar propositions, will be detrimental to the purposes of the repealing act, which are not so much for the purpose of working any instant change in the financial system of the country as for the restoration of business confidence throughout the land. From the information at his command, Mr. Cleveland has no doubt that his policy will be adopted by the house of representatives after reasonable discussion. It is in the senate that the trouble will come.

What will follow repeal is a matter that will not be injected into the present fight if the administration has its way. That further financial legislation will be needed, the president considers probable, but what its nature shall be is a matter for future determination.

The first thing to be done is to clear the ground. When that is done the question of construction can be considered upon an intelligent basis.

AN ELECTRUM DOLLAR.

Senator Sherman Disapproves a Coin Made of Alloyed Silver and Gold.

BALTIMORE, July 24.—Willard G. Day of this city recently addressed a letter to Senator John Sherman of Ohio, making a suggestion regarding the issue of coins composed of alloyed silver and gold. He says:

"Let the silver and gold now in the treasury be coined into mixed or electrum dollars, composed of 60 cents worth of silver bullion and 40 cents worth of gold bullion. By purchasing 100,000,000 more ounces of silver at a cost of say $70,000,000, the treasury would have bullion enough to coin $500,000,000 of standard electrum dollars, worth 100 cents each all over the world. The depreciated silver dollars could be called in and replaced by the new dollars of full value.

Senator Sherman's letter in answer to Mr. Day's is as follows:

"Yours of the 18th is received. The experiment of making what is called the gold coin, consisting of partly silver and partly of gold, was thoroughly tried when I was secretary of the treasury, but it was found that this coin could not be distinguished from the silver coins. The quantity of gold in the coin was so trifling that it did not change the color of the silver, or enable anyone without an assay to distinguish the gold coin from the silver coin. To avoid this difficulty it was proposed to insert the gold portion in the center, but this was not satisfactory, as it would be very small, like a dot on the silver coin.

"No doubt it is desirable to use both gold and silver for coinage to the utmost extent that will not demoralize either of them. Even if a new ratio should be adopted, unless it has the sanction of the chief European powers, it will not prevent fluctuation in the relative value of gold and silver. Now that the choice must be made, I have no doubt the subject will be given the most careful attention and may be solved."

WESTERN SENATORS.

What They Think of Repealing the Sherman Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Congressmen who were most interested in defeating the passage of the force bill, it is reported, may aid their western colleagues in opposing the unconditional repeal of the Sherman silver bill. This state of affairs is represented to have been brought about by correspondence between western silver senators.

It is said that at the time the force bill was before the senate the western silver senators bolted their party caucus to aid their southern friends, and resisted to the bitter end all efforts to "whip them into line," that it was through their efforts, united with those of the solid Democratic minority led by Senator Gorman, that the fight against the force bill was successful; and that much diplomacy was necessary to gather sufficient strength from the Republicans to defeat the force bill, and that obligations were consequently then incurred which have since benefited the Republican senators who aided the Democrats.

Tariff, silver and all other questions were at the time relegated to the background, and every energy was put forth by the southern people to prevent the passage of the force bill. It is cited that by a strange coincidence the very Republican senators from the west who helped to defeat the force bill, are now the most interested in continuing the use of silver as money, and are calling upon the southern senators to help them to prevent action, which they believe will prove to be a calamity to the business interests of their states.

A southern senator friendly to silver said that he felt very much like going to the aid of his fellow senators in the west on the principle "that one good turn deserves another." By so doing, he added, he could repay an obligation that both he and his people felt was due to those who aided to defeat the cursed force bill.

CLOSED BANKS.

Nearly Two Hundred of Them Have Succumbed This Year.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Since the 1st of January, nearly 200 national banks have closed their doors, against less than 50 during the same period last year. Of the failures this year five have been United States depositories, as follows:

The First National bank of Little Rock, the Gate City National bank of Atlanta, the People's National bank of Denver, the German National bank of Denver, the Kentucky National bank of Louisville. This latter bank which closed its doors Saturday had, by the last report, received $330,000 of United States funds.

The government, however, will not lose anything by these failures, as each national bank that is a government depository has to deposit United States bonds to the amount of government money it is allowed to carry. These bonds, in case of the failure of the bank are sold for the account of the government, and as United States bonds are at a premium in the financial market, there is never any difficulty in realizing.

Saturday afternoon Comptroller Eckels ordered bank examiners to take charge of the failed banks as follows: Escott, at Louisville; Plummer, at Knoxville; Sawyer, at Russell, Kan.; Shone, at Vernon, Tex.

THE FAIR CLOSED.

The Sunday Order Rigidly Enforced.

THE WHITE CITY DESERTED.

No One Allowed to Pass the Gates or Enter the Exposition Grounds Unless They Proved That Their Presence Was Absolutely Necessary—Injustice to Ohio's Wool Exhibit—Other World's Fair News.

CHICAGO, July 24.—The white city was deserted yesterday. The Sunday closing order was rigidly enforced, and any person who entered the exposition grounds had to prove that his presence there was absolutely necessary.

There was no trouble of any kind from persons wishing to enter the grounds. The nearest approach to a disturbance was at 9 o'clock, when a drink-flushed individual mounted a box across the street from the Fifty-seventh street entrance and called vociferously for 100 volunteers to aid him in tearing down a section of the fence in order to allow poor laboring men to see the fair free. A Hyde Park policeman stopped the harangue, however, and took the man away in a patrol wagon.

The crowds outside the gates along Stony Island avenue were small during the entire day, and the numerous sidewalks did nothing.

Injustice to Ohio Wool Exhibit.

Ohio's wool exhibit at the world's fair may be withdrawn from competition for the award. This is the result of what is thought to be injustice or favoritism in the appointment of the committee which will act as judges. The jury on awards began its work, with the examination of the wool display from Ohio flock raisers. The committee went about its work in a cut and slash manner, and after half a dozen fleeces had been ruthlessly torn apart and thrown aside, Executive Commissioner Ryan was notified of the unusual proceedings of the examiners.

Mr. Ryan at once investigated the matter and found that one member of the jury of awards is the superintendent of the Australian wool exhibit. Australia, as is well known, finds in the Buckeye state its chief competitor in the wool interests at the exposition. It is thus manifestly unjust that the superintendent of that exhibit should have the privilege of passing upon the merits of the Ohio display. Mr. Ryan has caused the examination of the Ohio wool to be suspended for one week, and the whole matter to be fully investigated. Meantime he will consult President Peabody of the Ohio commission as to what is best to be done in the matter, and it is probable that unless the objectionable juror is displaced, the entire Ohio wool exhibit may be removed from competition for the award.

Attendance Below Expectations.

Although up to this time nearly 6,000,000 persons have paid to see the fair, and have come from all parts of the United States, the world's fair officials are disappointed in the attendance. At the present rate the record for the first half of the six months of the fair will reach 6,750,000. The most sanguine experts on expositions say that under the most favorable conditions the total attendance will not reach 20,000,000. Before the exposition opened, world's fair officials declared that the attendance would reach a total of 80,000,000.

Russian Exhibitors Placated.

The covers on the Russian exhibits have been removed. Collector of Customs Clark having promised that no further insults shall be offered by his deputies. Collector Clark will sustain his subordinates in the matter. In the letter he has addressed to the Russian chamberlain, he insists that the provisions of the special regulations under the act of April 23, 1890, place all foreign exhibits in the control of the customs officials, and that examinations of exhibits may be found necessary to carry out the regulations.

Indiana Editors' Day.

Instead of holding its annual summer meeting at Warsaw Lake, Ind., as has been customary the Indiana Republican Editorial association this year will meet at the world's fair. The Indiana state building has been placed at the disposal of the editors, and on Tuesday, July 25, the first public meeting of the association for this session will be held therein.

Turners Will Be Out in Force.

July 26 will be turnerbund day, and will be fitly celebrated by the members of that great organization. The North American turnerbund consist of 230 societies, with a membership of 50,000 pupils.

HEAVY ASSIGNMENT.

Charles W. Depauw and the New Albany Rail Mill Company.

LOUISVILLE, July 24.—Charles W. Depauw and the New Albany Rail Mill company of New Albany made an assignment for the benefit of their creditors. The cause leading to the failure was the assignment of the Premier steelworks in Indianapolis several months ago, of which Charles W. Depauw held 6,450 shares.

The assignment includes Mr. Depauw's residence in Orange county, an undivided one-fourth of all his property in Floyd county, and includes the mill and American foundry, with all machinery, boilers, engines, fixtures, etc., and an interest in Colorado lands. He also assigns all his personal property in stocks, bonds, etc., in trust for the benefit of all bonafide creditors.

Later in the day another deed of assignment was filed, that of the New Albany rail mill. The deed includes all of Mr. Depauw's New Albany property and real estate in Madison county, including lots in the Star Land company's first addition to the city of Alexandria. The Union Trust company of Indianapolis is made assignee in each deed.

The last deed also conveys to the Trust company all personal property, goods, merchandise, chattels, property rights and credits. The assets are valued at over $1,000,000 and the liabilities are not stated. A few minutes after the deed had been filed, Mr. Depauw said:

"I can say but little regarding the assignment. It is a personal one, and does not in any way affect the interests of my brother, N. T. Depauw. The failure was caused by the contingent liabilities on paper of the Premier steel works in Indianapolis, and the rail mill company in this city, and the financial stringency now prevailing throughout the country. If I am able to realize on the assets I will be able to pay out two for one."

Mr. Depauw's individual assignment is a sweeping one and the man who was worth $1,000,000 three months ago is now practically penniless. The debts for which Mr. Depauw became liable for the New Albany rail mills and the Premier steel works amounted to about $800,000.

Of these over $500,000 worth are indorsements for the Premier steelworks and the remainder for the New Albany rail mill. The value of these two plants and stocks on hand in ordinary times might be placed at $2,000,000.

PAYDAY AT THE MINES.

It Results in the Usual Free Fighting Among the Miners.

SCRANTON, Pa., July 24.—Saturday was payday at the mines at Priceburg, a prosperous borough of this city, and the Hungarians and Poles of the town, and there are hundreds of them there, began to drink heavily.

At 7 o'clock at night a Hungarian and a Pole engaged in a fight in Bryann Fallon's saloon and the countrymen took sides with them, a free fight resulting. The borough police arrested four Hungarians and lodged them in jail. At 9 o'clock the Hungarians held an indignation meeting and then proceeded in a body to the jail, where they overpowered the keeper and liberated the prisoners.

This caused the largest riot that has occurred in this region in 16 years. The Poles took exception, and a race war commenced, lasting three hours, during which there was a reign of terror, all the saloons in the town being taken possession of and the officers driven off.

Over 30 men were injured, three fatally, and one Pole had his ears cut off. Many windows were broken in with stones and clubs. Shortly before midnight Deputy Sheriff Craig arrested several and restored peace. Many arrests will follow.

NEARING DEATH'S DOOR.

Joseph Jefferson, the Veteran Actor, Suffering From a Cancerous Affection.

NEW YORK, July 24.—Joseph Jefferson, the veteran actor, is near death and a cancerous affection of the neck is the cause of it. Mr. Jefferson's physicians have been so far steadily baffled by his disease, which is attributed partly to an inherited tendency and partly to carelessness in the treatment of a boil that appeared near his cervical vertebrae some time ago. However, the general mystery thrown about the malady renders a diagnosis almost impossible to obtain.

Curiously enough, the secret nearly leaked out a week ago, and through a misunderstanding of the comedian's friend, President Cleveland was credited with cancerous trouble instead of Mr. Jefferson. Of course a skillful physician may stave off the worst for some time to come, but it can be stated positively that radical measures must speedily be resorted to if America's comedian is not soon to go the way of Edwin Booth.

VAN LOON DESPERATE.

The Guard Doubled to Prevent Him from Killing Himself.

COLUMBUS, O., July 24.—For the past few days Frank Van Loon has given frequent evidences that he has lost hope of escaping through any official intercession the penalty for his crime. He has shown the desperation which possesses him by frequent exhibitions of temper. He still asserts that he will never hang.

The man is a giant physically, and the warden, not knowing to what lengths he might go in his despair, has doubled the guard in the annex, and two men will keep their eyes on him every moment until he goes through the trap. This action is unusual, inasmuch as the deathwatch has never been posted until within a day or two of the time set for execution.

WIPED OUT BY FIRE.

Edgerton, Ohio, Almost Entirely Destroyed.

THIRTY BUILDINGS BURNED.

Two Blocks of Wooden Business Houses Completely Wiped Out—Thieves Get in Their Work in Various Parts of the Village—Fire Losses Elsewhere.

BRYAN, O., July 24.—The little village of Edgerton, containing about 800 inhabitants and situated in the west part of this (Williams) county, was visited by a disastrous fire at 10 o'clock at night. The fire originated in the rear of a photograph gallery, but how, no one knows. The flames soon spread from building to building, until about 20 business houses were consumed. The city hand engine was used as well as possible but did no good. As a last resort, the department from this place was ordered there, but too late to save any of the buildings save a dwelling. About 30 buildings in all were laid flat to the ground by the flames.

Two squares in length of business houses, all wooden, were burned. The contents of nearly all the buildings were saved. The loss will exceed $45,000, with light insurance, many of them without insurance altogether. The buildings were built on a square, two sides of which were burned. The largest business block, a 3-story brick, owned by Farnham & Company, and located at the corner of the square, was not burned. All the buildings on both sides of it went. Nothing is left on the square but that high building and a couple of bake ovens. While people were looking upon the fire, many houses in different parts of the village were broken into and valuables taken. Several arrests were made.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

Adjoining Towns Called on For Assistance But Their Services Not Needed.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., July 24.—At 11 o'clock a fire broke out in the stables of Jones & South. Their wholesale house was completely destroyed, together with the adjoining houses of John Emmert and Dr. J. S. Wishard. The total loss is about $125,000, of which Jones & South lost $100,000.

The hot, dry season and a strong wind blowing toward the business part of the city led the mayor to telegraph to Chambersburg and Martinsburg for all the assistance they could send, but the local firemen worked gallantly and the fire was brought under control within an hour.

Barrels Burned.

BUFFALO, July 24.—Shortly after 12 o'clock fire broke out in the King carriage works at Blackrock. The plant is located in the heart of a group of factories and a second alarm was quickly turned in, but the flames were confined to this building. During the progress of the fire the second floor fell in, carrying four firemen with it. Luckily all escaped with but slight injuries. The Buffalo Ventilated Barrel company occupied a portion of the main building and are the main losers, as about 100,000 barrels ready for shipment were destroyed. The loss is about $40,000, with small insurance.

Fire at Rockaway Beach.

ROCKAWAY BEACH, N. Y., July 24.—A disastrous fire ravaged a small section of the beach. The large ice factory of Jameson & Bond, their coal and wood yard, stables and the residence of John A. Bond were totally destroyed. Eleven horses were burned. The Scroll House and church were saved by heroic efforts of the firemen, the steamers doing execution. The ice factory and plant cost $22,000, and the total loss is about $30,000, with very little insurance.

Village in Ashes.

PAULDING, O., July 24.—This village was swept by fire at 3 a. m. Sunday. Fire was discovered in the shed back of the famous clothing house. The Van Wert fire department arrived, but the water in the cisterns gave out and the flames took in the whole square of frame buildings. Hotels, stores and residences were burned and the losses will run into the thousands. The business portion of Paulding is in ashes.

Fire in a Brewery.

MILWAUKEE, July 24.—Fire at the Pabst Brewing company's plant caused a damage of $75,000 besides destroying the homestead of Jacob Best, the father of Mrs. Pabst and the founder of the Pabst brewery. The damage is covered by insurance.

All Drowned.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., July 24.—George Bagnell, aged 71, and his grandson, Melville Bagnell, aged 7, were drowned in Great South pond. The dead body of a horse attached to a buggy was found in the water near the spot. It is supposed that they drove into the pond to water the horse and the animal got entangled in the harness, or waded beyond his depth, dragging the vehicle after him.

Shipping Negroes to Kansas.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 24.—About 500 negroes have been shipped from here to Leavenworth, Kan. It is proposed to replace strikers with them. Agents of the mineowners will endeavor to secure 1,000 more negroes.

Bather Drowned.

ZANESVILLE, O., July 24.—While Johnny Huffman, aged 15, of Columbus, who is visiting his grandparents at Sonora, was bathing in the Muskingum river, he was drowned.

MONDAY, JULY 24, 1893.

This country got in over $1,000,000 more gold than was exported last week. The drift of the yellow metal is setting in in the right direction.

MAYSVILLE Democrats will not likely refuse to give their party affiliation at the next registration. All who do will not be allowed to participate in the approaching primary. The law is plain on that point.

SOME Winchester people invested $60,000 in a bank at Gano, Texas, a few years ago, and they are now sorry for it. They received a call recently for 16 per cent. on their stock, and will have to plank down the cash.

A NUMBER of the moneyed men of Boyle, Lincoln and other counties in Central Kentucky were caught in the Western bank failures. Instead of investing their money at home, they put it in stock in these Western banks. Keep your cash at home. Invest your surplus wealth in home enterprises. This is the safest plan to pursue.

LOUISVILLE papers unite in saying that the suspension of the Kentucky National Bank of that city Saturday occasioned no surprise. It had been in close quarters, they say, for several weeks. And yet the failure is not a bad one, as the assets, after charging off those that are doubtful, are sufficient to secure the depositors against all loss, and it is estimated that the stockholders will get 70 cents on the dollar.

THE Journal of Sandusky, O., calls attention to the fact that "one of the most ardent advocates of the Sherman Silver-purchasing act in Congress was Representative McKinley. He then declared that act would solve the silver question by bringing silver to an actual parity with gold and insure free coinage. To hear him talk about it now, however, one is led to think he must have been out of his mind then or has gone daft since.

There are a few Republicans in the land who imagine that what the Governor doesn't know isn't worth knowing. But just look how he has changed his views on the Sherman bill. He is a candidate for re-election, however, and he's evidently afraid to endorse the silver bill now as he did a few years ago.

SAYS that old and reputable Republican paper, the Philadelphia North American: "There is not a particle of doubt that thousands now receiving this (pension) money are not entitled to it. Almost every observing person can see this, and does see it. Why pay money to such persons who have no disabilities traceable to service? Why not save the money for the deserving veterans, some of whom find it difficult to procure a pension owing to some technical error or omission, but who may some day be able to make the necessary proof? Pensioners are not paupers, but deserving beneficiaries."

A GREAT howl was raised a few days ago over the suspension of the pension of Hon. Charles D. Long, of Michigan. It was a great outrage, according to some of the talk, but it develops that while earning a salary of $7,000 as one of the Justices of the Michigan Supreme Court he has been drawing a pension of $72 a month for "total disability." It is further shown that Commissioner Tanner raised this pension from $50 per month to $72 per month, and between May, 1889, and August, 1889, granted two ratings, each carrying large arrearages, without any legal application on the part of the pensioner, or any medical examination, so far as the records show, the generous act of the then Commissioner of Pensions resulting in the payment to Mr. Long of a sum total of $6,912.94.

AMERICAN HAY.

Europeans Clamoring For it to Save Their Cattle.

It has been the rule for Europe to purchase annually large quantities of grain from the United States to make good the deficit in the supply compared with the consumption, but it has not been usual to look abroad for a supply of forage. This year, however, there will not only be a good demand for grain, but there will also be a demand for hay and oats. In fact, there is already a heavy inquiry for American hay, and large quantities have already gone forward from the different Atlantic ports to various destinations in England, France and Germany, says an exchange.

The cause of the scarcity of hay in Europe is to be found in the almost unprecedented drouth which has prevailed this spring, cutting off the usual supply of forage. So serious an effect has the drouth exerted on the forage supply that thousands of head of cattle had to be slaughtered in France, owing to the lack of food for them, while in Germany there has been a demand made in Parliament, that the usual army maneuvers be abandoned owing to the heavy demands the presence of large bodies of troops would make upon the section selected for the camps for forage.

It is seldom that American farmers are afforded such a good opportunity to work off their surplus hay supply at good prices. It is said that hay has sold in Liverpool as high as $50 per ton. Such a price naturally afforded a good profit to the exporters of American hay, and, as a consequence, a number of cargoes have gone forward from New York and other Atlantic ports, while preparations are in progress for other shipments.

Of course it is not expected that this demand from Europe will prove a long continued feature, but, such as it is, it is likely to absorb all that remains of the last crop of hay, thus leaving a free field for the new crop just now coming on the market.

Worthy of Imitation.

"The Louisville and Nashville Railroad has set an example worthy of imitation," says the Covington Record. "It proposes to grant its employees a week's leave of absence and pay their way to the Chicago Fair. Those who have been in the service of the company two years will be entitled to take their wives and two unmarried children. If other corporations would exhibit a similar spirit of appreciation and generosity better relations would exist between employers and employed. The action of this Southern line comports with the broad spirit which has usually characterized its management and should be imitated by the larger and richer corporations of the North."

Hon. Claude Thomas—Miss Margaret Brent.

It is announced that Hon. Claude M. Thomas will wed the beautiful and accomplished Miss Margaret Brent, of Paris, before leaving for France, and that she will accompany him across the ocean. The bride expectant is a daughter of Judge J. H. Brent, of the Superior Court, and a granddaughter of the late Hon. Frank T. Chambers, a brilliant lawyer of Cincinnati, formerly of this county. The lady comes of a handsome family on both sides, and is said to well sustain their reputation in this respect, as well as possessing intelligence of a high order.

STARTLING LABOR SENSATION.

Every Railroad Telegraph Operator in the Country Affected.

OMAHA, July 24.—One of the most profound sensations in national labor circles and one which will directly or indirectly affect every railroad telegraph operator in the country, came to light in the disclosure of the fact that Omaha division of the Order of Railway Telegraphers had filed charges to impeach Grand Chief D. G. Ramsay, Grand Editor A. D. Thurston and Grand Executive Committeeman George C. Flegel.

The charges present 36 specifications, running all the way on the part of Ramsay from incompetency and dishonesty to seduction, and taking in all sorts of offenses.

Talk of a Lynching.

PLAIN CITY, O., July 24.—Saturday evening several men became engaged in a fight over a game of cards. Frank Wilson attempted to act as peacemaker, when one of the fighters, named Emery Fitzpatrick, drew a revolver and shot him through the head. Fitzpatrick then fled to the woods, where he was overtaken by the marshal and a posse and returned to the jail. On the way there they were met by a mob, which they held at bay, and the prisoner was landed in the jail. There is talk of a lynching and there are prospects of a hanging as the people are greatly excited over the affair. Wilson was a much respected man.

The Late Senator Stanford's Successor. SACRAMENTO, July 24.—Governor Markham has appointed ex-Governor George C. Perkins United States senator to succeed the late Leland Stanford. Perkins lives in San Francisco, and is a member of the firm of Goodall, Perkins & Company, general agents for the Pacific Coast Steamship company. He served three years as governor of California, being elected upon the adoption of the new state constitution in 1879.

Two Brothers Drowned.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., July 24.—While three brothers, George, Willie and Sochray, aged 13, 11 and 6 years respectively, sons of George A. Sochray, were sitting along the banks of the Lehigh river, in this city, yesterday, Willie toppled into the stream. The two brothers, in trying to rescue him, also fell into the river. Assistance came and Willie was rescued. His two brothers were drowned.

Three People Suffocated.

SAVANNAH, July 22.—A colored woman and her two children were smothered to death in a tenement house fire in the colored quarter of the city. The fire which broke out in the lower part of the house burned the stairway, filling the upper room, where the women and children were sleeping, with smoke, and suffocating them.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

PLAIN TALK TO SILVERITES.

The New York Herald Gives Some Figures Especially Interesting at This Time.

The foreign commerce of this country aggregates nearly $2,000,000,000 a year, says the New York Herald. The comparative unimportance of the silver product is seen from the fact that it is only one-fiftieth of this sum, and commerce must be conducted with the money of the civilized world—gold.

The value of the silver product is only a fraction of the annual hen product. It is worth only one-sixteenth of the corn crop, or a tenth of the wheat or hay raised every year. It is worth only half as much as the wool or the potatoes annually produced, and about as much as the barley or the tobacco grown in this country.

The cost of running the Government last year was $684,000,000. If the entire silver product had been donated it would not have gone far toward paying that little bill, would it?

Now, our fellow-citizens in the mining camps must know that this is a republic in which the object of government is "the greatest good to the greatest number," and they can not and must not entertain the silly notion that the 62,000,000 of people outside of the silver precincts and who make the country what it is and foot the bills are "down on silver," because, in order to avert further disaster, they are going to stop the compulsory purchase of it.

The friends of Sister Frances Gonzaga will regret to learn that she is seriously ill.

The old soldiers and friends of the family invited to the funeral.

THE local Board of Fire Underwriters at Lancaster has been instructed by the National Board to discontinue writing any insurance in that town until better protection is given the companies, and furthermore to cancel all policies on August 1. This announcement has created a decided sensation among policy-holders and the business people of the town in general. The trouble is caused by the failure of the town to provide better facilities for fighting fire.

CAN plants see? Darwin gave it as his opinion that some of them can, and an Indian botanist relates some curious incidents which tend to verify the belief. Observing one morning that the tendrils of a convolvulus on his veranda had decidedly leaned over towards his leg as he lay in the attitude of repose, he tried a series of experiments with a long pole, placing it in such a position that the leaves would have to turn away from the light in order to reach it. In every case he found that the tendrils set themselves visibly toward the pole, and in a few hours had twined themselves closely around it.

THE English language is called one of the most difficult of acquirement by foreigners; but it would seem that the German was especially invented to try the printer's patience. There is a druggist's prescription something like colloidion, to be used to prevent scarring after certain operations, but in Germany they call it Kazbolquecksilberguttaperchylsternmüll—thirty-nine letters. Still we for once outdo them with the chemical name for the drug hypnol—manotrichloracetylidimethylphenylpyrazolon—forty-two letters, not one of which must be skipped if we would convey a clear idea of the substance described.—New York Independent.

AN Enquirer special from Louisa, Ky., Friday says: "This little city, is wild with excitement occasioned by the arrest of Dr. Wroten, wife and daughter, accused of infanticide. Thursday morning the Jailor of this county discovered the body of a well-developed child in the vault of a public house. A trail of blood led from the building to the residence of the Wrotens. Officers were refused admittance to the house, and entered the same by process of law. A committee of physicians made an examination upon Wroten's fourteen-year-old daughter Kittie, and discovered that a few hours before she had been delivered. Mrs. Wroten attempted suicide with morphine when the facts were brought to light.

The Wrotens were placed under arrest to-day, charged with the crime. The doctor has heretofore stood high in the estimation of all. He is a leading light of the M. E. Church, South, and is an old physician of high repute. He has held several public offices. He was an Inspector of Indian Schools under Cleveland. The girl is in a precarious condition."

ZWIGART'S BLOCK.

HUNG TO A TELEGRAPH POLE.

A Colored Rapist Taken From Jail and Lynched.

MEMPHIS, July 24.—Lee Walker, the negro who assaulted Miss Mollie McCadden, near Bond station, and on the same day assaulted a colored girl, and who was captured Friday, was lynched Saturday night in spite of the fact that 25 well-armed deputy sheriffs guarded the jail and that Sheriff McLendon had given it out that the mob should not touch him.

The lynching was very similar to the Bardwell affair, the body being cremated after hanging in full view of 1,000 men, women and children.

The attack on the jail began at 11 o'clock. It was not believed it would be successful, the mob being composed chiefly of drunken men and boys, and Sheriff McLendon ordered his men not to hurt anybody. The crowd grew in numbers and at 12:15 a. m. broke down the jail gates. Even the sheriff would not permit his men to use their weapons. Finally a rush was made and McLendon was knocked senseless with a chain. He was carried to a bedroom and the mob battered down the doors, found the rapist's cell, and got him out.

He fought fiercely and bit several men severely. He was stabbed and slashed until the blood streamed from him in torrents. He was hustled off to a telegraph pole two blocks away and a rope was fastened around his neck. He was lifted up and his then naked body swung clear off the ground. Then a big railroad switchman pulled his legs until his neck cracked. The same man then mutilated the corpse. The negro was dead, or nearly so before he was hanged.

There were probably 5,000 persons in the crowd around the jail, but not more than 100 took an active part in the assault and subsequent lynching. They were nearly all railroad men. One of them stumbled and fell as the victim was being carried to the telegraph pole, and the crowd trampled on him, breaking his jaw and probably injuring him fatally. Sheriff McLendon is badly hurt. He seems to have concussion of the brain.

The rapist tried to commit suicide before he was lynched by cutting his throat with a glass bottle found in his cell. After the body was cut down the mob raided a lumber yard and building a bonfire burned the dead negro. The fire was built in the middle of Front street, near the jail. By 2 o'clock the town had become quiet.

Walker was 19 years old, very black and strong as a gorilla. Six months ago he was committed to jail at Milwaukee for assaulting a negro named Duck Sondere. Three weeks ago he was released and came to Memphis. He was overtaken Friday at the home of his father near New Albany, Mass.

Sheriff McLendon arrived shortly after the negro was arrested and slipped him away from the mob that was forming. Walker confessed as soon as he was arrested, and said he acted as he did because he could not help it. His parents corroborate his plea of uncontrollable impulse, and say that since he was 15 years old he has assaulted 20 or 30 women.

THE MARKETS.

Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

Furnished by the Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company.

We are glad to report a more encouraging market. The improvement came where it was most needed, namely, in good tobacco.

While there was little activity on Tuesday, and the market as dull as ever, quite a perceptible betterment took place on Wednesday, extending to Thursday, and growing stronger. There was hardly enough offered on Friday to excite the interest of buyers.

The sales were light during the week. Doubtless the improved condition of the market would have induced more liberal offerings, but there were only few shippers in the city, harvesting keeping most everybody at home.

The buyers continue to be very regular in their attendance on the breaks, and some of these who have not been bidders for weeks have commenced making purchases again.

Old stock was offered but sparingly, competition light, and the bids, though disappointing to holders, are now generally accepted—the only thing left is to do. Fortunately there are not very many shippers carrying any of these goods.

Receipts are not large for the time of the year, and stocks are increasing slowly.

The offerings during the week were 646 hhds; rejections, 142 hhds; actual sales, 504 hhds; receipts, 1,240 hhds.

Sales for this week will be as follows: Second, Cincinnati; third, Walker; fourth, Morris; fifth, Miami; sixth, Globe; eighth, Bodmann.
